Bernama - Highway Users Start To Enjoy Reduced Toll Rates Today

□ Saturday, Feb 01 2020 □ □

KUALA LUMPUR, 1 FEB --Millions of Malaysian highway users started to enjoy an 18 per cent reduced toll rates starting today.

Based on calculations made by the government, through the concession restructuring of PLUS, both the government and the people would see a total savings of up to RM1.1 bilion for this year alone.

And with this restructuring, the government stand to save some RM42 billion in the span of the new concession period of up to 2058.

These include a saving of RM0.5 billion from the 18 percent discount as well as a saving of RM0.6 billion from the government compensation payments to freeze the toll rate hike.

Finance Minister Lim Guan Eng said the savings would be channeled to welfare and economic development programmes that would benefit the people as a whole.

"With the reduction in toll rates effective from Feb 1, 2020, the government has taken significant steps towards fulfilling the promise to gradually eliminate tolls by renegotiating the highway concession agreement, as promised in the Pakatan Harapan (PH) Manifesto," he said.

The Cabinet meeting on Jan 15, 2020, decided that 18 percent toll discount will be given to passenger car, bus and taxi (i.e class 1, 4 and 5) on the affected highways:

1. New Klang Valley Expressway (NKVE)
2. North South Expressway Central Link (ELITE)
3. Malaysia-Singapore Second-Link Highway (LINKEDUA)
4. Phase 2 East Coast Expressway (LPT 2)
5. Seremban Port Dickson Highway (SPDH)
6. Butterworth – Kulim Expressway (BKE)

The discount is also applicable to class 2, 3, 4 and 5 vehicles plying the Penang Bridge.

With the toll reduction effective today, the rate of the affected highways dropped from 13.6 sen/km to 11.15 sen/km, lower than the toll rate in 1999 which was 11.24 sen / km.
