All four programmes are placed under the National Economic Recovery Plan's (PENJANA) second objective, which is to propel local businesses.

Commenting on Budget 2021 tabled last Friday, Tengku Zafrul said the budget, with an allocation of RM322.5 billion, symbolised the continuity of the government's efforts, with three goals: the rakyat's well-being, business continuity, and economic resilience.

"The PRIHATIN, PRIHATIN SME+ PENJANA, and KITA PRIHATIN packages; and now Budget 2021, are proof that the government will not compromise in protecting the people.

"Taking into account of the uncertainty of COVID-19, the government is constantly monitoring and ready to act accordingly, wherever necessary," he added.
