MoF confirms legal action filed against KPMG partners

PRESS CITATIONS | 09 JULY 2021

KUALA LUMPUR, July 9 – The Ministry of Finance (MoF) has confirmed that a writ and statement of claim have been filed against 44 individual partners of Malaysian accounting firm KPMG PLT on July 6, 2021.

An MoF spokesperson said the plaintiffs were the Government of Malaysia, Minister of Finance Inc, 1Malaysia Development Bhd (1MDB) and four other subsidiaries of 1MDB.

"The claim is related to the 1MDB audit works performed by KPMG for the years 2010 to 2012.

"As the matter is already before the court, MoF is unable to make further comments in observing the rule of sub judice," it said in a statement following queries about the legal action filed against KPMG PLT.
