PUTRAJAYA, Sept 6 – Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ismail Sabri Yaakob today said insisted that the Special COVID-19 Aid (BKC) cash vouchers prepared by the Ministry of Finance must reach the recipients without any delay.

Having witnessed the Phase One payments of the BKC be credited into the accounts of 10 million recipients today, Ismail Sabri also asked the Finance Ministry to ensure smooth running of the BKC payments, especially to recipients residing in rural areas, far from banking access or who do not have a bank account.

According to the Finance Ministry's data, there are 708,223 eligible BKC recipients who do not have a bank account.

"As such, the Prime Minister wants the BKC cash vouchers prepared by the Finance Ministry to reach those recipients without any delay," a statement from the Prime Minister's Office read.

Last Wednesday, Ismail Sabri announced Phase One payments of the BKC will be credited to the recipients' accounts in stages starting today until Sept 10, with a total of RM3.1 billion had been channelled to the relevant banking institution for the purpose.
