Treasury approves 2.3 mln new application for BPN, total payout RM1.7 bln

PRESS CITATIONS | 09 MAY 2020

KUALA LUMPUR, May 9 – A total of 2.3 million new applications and appeals for Bantuan Prihatin Nasional (BPN) have been approved, with a cumulative total payout of RM1.7 billion, Finance Minister Tengku Datuk Seri Zafrul Tengku Abdul Aziz announced today.

The approval came after the Malaysian Inland Revenue Board (LHDN) completed its review of these new applications and appeals, he said.

“With the approval of these new applications and appeals, the total number of BPN recipients currently stands at 10.6 million, with a cumulative total disbursement of RM11 billion (an increase of RM1 billion on top of the initial allocation of RM10 billion),” he said in a statement today.
